

LEADING AN AGILE ENTERPRISE

How to transform and lead an Agile organisation

PURPOSE

To help leaders break out of the whirlwind of the day-to-day, learn global best practices in transforming and leading Agile organisations to achieve excellent results and ultimately create a better future for themselves, their organisations, others & the planet.

COURSE OUTCOMES

- Thorough understanding of how to transform a traditional organisation into Agile
- Learn how to lead strategy & cultural deployment, review and adapting
- Leading and coaching from the front to enhance culture and performance
- Adjust leadership language to lead an Agile organisation
- Understand and practise coaching for performance
- Understand how to lead an Agile Transformation that sustains and achieves results.
- Create your own playbook/operating system for Agile - your way.

WHO SHOULD ENGAGE

Any leader or future leader looking to understand and build capability in transforming and leading an Agile organisation. Leaders who want to understand global best practice leadership approaches and progress towards excellence.

PREREQUISITES AND WORK

Completing the Agile & Lean Fundamentals course is a prerequisite. After registration, the pre-work is to read the course introduction and video provided. You will complete the Time Optimisation Review and two self-reviews: DISC and Enneagram, as part of the course.

LEARNING APPROACH & COMMITMENT

This course can be hosted in person or virtually via Zoom & innovative, practical online tools. The course runs for two days, typically 8 am to 4 pm. Two half-hour breaks and a one-hour break are provided for learners to rest, eat and catch up on work if needed.

CERTIFICATION

A 70% pass on the post-course test will provide attendees with a Registered Agile Leader@Scale™ (RALS) certification through the Agile Education Program.

WHAT THEN?

Attendees can also get involved in the Enterprise Excellence Leadership Community. This community helps bring leaders of Agile organisations together to continue learning from our world's experts and each other.

