

AGILE ENTERPRISE

How to create an Agile organisation

PURPOSE

Help business improvement practitioners and senior leaders learn best practices in creating a totally Agile Enterprise. This course was developed by Jeff Sutherland based on his studies of his greatest Agile successes, organisations such as Tesla, Apple, Amazon and others.

COURSE OUTCOMES

- How to create enterprise alignment exec to front line through best practice strategy and culture deployment.
- How to create extended value stream alignment and exceptional value flow.
- How to create a totally visual enterprise
- How to create a high performance fun culture within the whole Enterprise.
- How to create bottom up scaled meetings to coordinate execution and remove impediments to performance and culture.
- How to strategically review and adapt a total enterprise rapidly.
- Best practice transformation approaches to achieve an Agile Enterprise.

WHO SHOULD ENGAGE

Business improvement practitioners and leaders looking to learn best practices in creating a totally Agile Enterprise that is fast, calm, adaptive and a great place to work.

PREREQUISITES AND WORK

Extensive background in Agile or Lean. Completion of the Agile High Performance Teams course for those new to Agile and or Lean. Watching Jeff Sutherlands Enterprise Excellence Podcast on Agile Scrum@Scale. Reading the Scrum@Scale guide.

LEARNING APPROACH & COMMITMENT

This course can be hosted in person or virtually via Zoom & innovative, practical online tools. The course is hands on, enabling the learner to apply the learning and make gains during the course. The course runs for two days, typically 8 am to 4 pm. Two half-hour breaks and a one-hour break are provided for learners to rest, eat and catch up on work if needed.

CERTIFICATION

A 70% pass on the post-course test will provide attendees with a Registered Scrum@Scale Practitioner™ certification through the Agile Education Program.

WHAT THEN?

Attendees can also get involved in the Enterprise Excellence Leadership Community. This community helps bring leaders of Agile organisations together to continue learning from our world's experts and each other.

